LUMIVERSITY

Code of Conduct.

SCOPE:

This code of Conduct applies both within the Lumiversity® Project spaces and in spaces when an individual is representing the Project or its community. Representation of a Project may be further defined and clarified by a KYP (Know Your Project).

Our behavior must contributes to creating a positive environment including inclusive language, respectful of differing viewpoints and experiences, accepting constructive criticism, focusing on what is the best for the community, showing empathy towards other community members.

Unacceptable behavior by participants include: use of sexualized language or imagery and unwelcome sexual attention or advances; trolling, insulting/derogatory comments, and personal or political attacks, public or private harassment, publishing others´ private information, such as physical or electronic address, without explicit permission. Other conduct which could be reasonably be considered inappropriate in a professional setting.

Our Standards:

1. Be impeccable with words.
2. Do not take anything personally.
3. Do not make assumptions.
4. Always do your best.

These are our pillars and we as project maintainers are responsible for clarifying the standards of acceptable behavior and are expected to take appropriate and fair corrective action in response to any instances of unacceptable behavior. We have the right and responsibility to remove, edit, or reject comments, commits, code, wiki edits, issues, and other contribution that are not aligned to this Code of Conduct, or to ban temporarily or permanently any contributor for other behaviors that they deem inappropriate, threatening, offensive, harmful or promote illicit and/or illegal causes.
